SOVIET SIGNAL CORPS LAYS CABLES AT KECSKEMET -- Paris, Szabad Vilag, 20 Feb 51

Signal Corps units of the Soviet Army have been laying cables and power lines in and near Kecskemet. At Bugac, tourist establishments were taken over by Soviet military authorities.

At Kecskemet, Soviet troops are billeted in the former infantry barracks, and a landing strip has been built for the use of courier airplanes.

Near Kecskemet, in the villages of Paka, Orgovany, Ujkecske, Tiszaujfalu, Izsak, Fulopszallas, and Kerekegyhaza, armored and tank units are stationed.
